Application Details

Applying for a general or capital grant? Know the difference:

General Grant requests seek funding for projects/programs, operations, and capacity building or other activities consistent with our guidelines.

Capital Grant requests seek funding to purchase, renovate or construct facilities.

If your request is for both, please complete the general application but address the items listed under Capital Grants below.

General Requests

Preference is given to GENERAL GRANT REQUESTS that:

- Address a critical community need or opportunity.
- Address root causes of a problem.
- Include clearly stated goals, timelines, objectives and measurable outcomes.
- Include an effective mechanism for measuring the impact.
- Exhibit sound and realistic financial plans as well as diverse funding sources.
- Will not duplicate existing services unless there is a clear need for additional services.
- Can be replicated by other organizations.
- Involve collaboration or cooperation with other organizations.
- Promote activities that build and sustain connections among diverse groups.

The requesting organization should:

- Demonstrate the expertise and experience necessary to accomplish the project.
- Operate under sound financial principles.
- Have a plan for ongoing financial and community support for sustainability.

Capital Requests

Preference is given to CAPITAL GRANT REQUESTS that:

- Demonstrate that the project is necessary to fulfill the organization's mission and conduct its programs, and is part of a long-range plan for the organization.
- Serve a broad segment of the Greater Memphis area.
- Enhance or improve the organization's ability to meet the needs of those it serves.
- Provide a detailed, itemized capital project budget.
- Demonstrate diverse funding sources, including agency and board contributions, public appeals, grants and loans.
- Provide a project timeline/schedule that includes the campaign's start date, expected duration, plans for additional funding if needed, and date that construction/renovation will begin.
- Explain the impact that the project will have on the agency's ongoing operating budget.

The requesting organization should:

- Include a method to evaluate the campaign's success. For example, will it be based on reaching the goal, finishing the project on schedule, or increasing services provided as a result of the campaign?
- Have raised in cash or pledges at least 50% of the capital campaign total.
- Have leveraged other support.
- Some or all of a Capital project grant may be made on a matching/challenge basis. The terms of the match will be determined on a case-by-case basis, in partnership with the grantee.

Typically, payments of Capital project grants are made when the organization begins the construction/renovation. Specific terms and payment schedules will be based on the project scope, award amount, project duration and completion of required reporting at appropriate intervals.

Yes. If you do not have one, consider attending Before You Ask.

What is Before You Ask?

It is a free 12 week training program offered by the Foundation. There is more information located on our website. <https://assisifoundation.org/community-initiatives/>

Is attending Before You Ask required to apply?

Before You Ask is not required. However, new or smaller agencies may find this class helpful before beginning to request funding from foundations.

No. The Foundation predominantly serves Shelby County, but we also provide limited support to Fayette and Tipton Counties in Tennessee; Crittenden County, Arkansas; and DeSoto County, Mississippi.

Can I apply if my organization is located outside of your funding area but the program/service provided is?

Does The Foundation require a special budget format?

No, please use your agency's format. Be aware that different projects require different budget detail. Your budget format should match the nature of your request.

What should be in the budget?

Budgets are commonly divided into two parts: expenses and income. Examples of budgets can be found on the Internet or other web resources, including Momentum Nonprofit Partners.

What should I include in the expenses portion?

Include personnel expenses for all people who work on the project, including employees or independent contractors. For employees, list the title, annual pay rate and if the person will be working less than full time or fewer than 12 months on the project, and the portion of time to be dedicated to the project. Also add payroll taxes and fringe benefits like health insurance. For independent contractors or consultants, list either their flat fee for the project or their hourly rate.

Also include direct expenses, or non-personnel expenses, that you would not incur if you did not do the project. This includes travel, printing, space or equipment rental, supplies, insurance or meeting expenses, like food and drink.

Finally, incorporate administrative or overhead expenses, or non-personnel expenses you will incur whether or not you do the project. Calculate these correctly and accurately. For example, if you pay $500 a month for office space for four employees, you will continue to rent the office even if the project doesn't happen. If it does happen, the project/program director will occupy one-quarter of the office space, so you can charge for one-quarter of the rent, utilities and administrative costs, like phone, copying, postage and office supplies.

What should be included in income?

Earned income or what people give you in exchange for the service or product.
Contributed income, including cash and in-kind contributions. Show cash contributions first and indicate whether each item is received, committed or pending. In-kind contributions are goods or services instead of cash. They include donated space, materials or time.

Note: If you list in-kind contributions as budget income, you must show corresponding expenses. If someone gives you something at a major discount, show the entire expense and then list the portion donated under in-kind contributions. Also, if you are applying for a matching grant, in-kind income may be used as part of the match. This is reviewed on an individual-case basis.

Other income—if you plan to seek funds from other funders and know you won't receive money from all of them, an "other funders" line is an easy way to indicate how much total money you need to receive from all other sources to balance the budget.

Can I apply for operating support?

Yes, but please include the following in your attachments: your Board approved strategic business plan and projected budget for the number of years for which you are requesting funding as the Project Budget attachment.

Can I apply for multi-year funding?

Yes. Please be sure that the amount requested is the total amount for however many years you are requesting. Please include the amount requested for each year in the brief summary narrative field. The project budget attachment should include all years for which funds are requested.

Can I review the application questions prior to registering within the portal?

Yes. We encourage all interested applicants to review the provided document which is accessible from our website. We provide the list of questions in a word doc so that you can type your answers into the document and copy and paste them into the form when you are ready to apply. Please allocate ample time to get registered and complete the portal form before the deadline.

We utilize the contacts provided in the Collaborators section of your application to administer the DocuSign process. Please be sure to include the exact executive contact information in that section. This ensures a quick and smooth signing process.
